

Nicholas Nira D.C.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

TSAOG Orthopaedics / The San Antonio Orthopaedic Group 2018 to present

Member of the spine team, as a Chiropractor, at a large, renowned multispecialty orthopedic group

Pure Health and Wellness-Cibolo, TX

Chiropractor 2011 to present

- Built a new, thriving practice as a Chiropractor. Perform full physical exams, create treatment plans, report of findings, Physiotherapy modalities, adjustments, active care, x-rays as needed, follow up phone calls, etc.
- Maintain and manage care of patients including diagnosing and treating various spinal conditions such as facet syndrome, degenerative disc disease, and scoliosis, among other conditions. Also treat various orthopedic and musculoskeletal conditions such as rotator cuff tendonitis, lateral and medial epicondylitis, piriformis syndrome, plantar fasciitis, etc. Ability to recognize when to refer a patient for imaging and/or co-management with the appropriate specialist.
- Experience in various adjusting techniques including Diversified, Activator, Gonstead, Thompson, extremity adjusting and soft tissue manipulation.

Chiropractic office of Dr. Shad Sutton, D.C. –Thornton, CO

Rehab Coordinator/Front office CA 2002 to 2006

- In charge of implementing rehabilitation programs including stretching, proprioceptive rehabilitation, and strength training for patients ranging from Personal Injury, to Workman's Comp, to wellness care. Performed billing for rehab department. Performed CA work PRN including scheduling, greeting patients, collecting payments, etc.

EDUCATION AND LICENSURE

National Board of Chiropractic Examiners	2012
Texas Chiropractic License No. 12135	2012
Parker College of Chiropractic Doctor of Chiropractic	2011
Parker College of Chiropractic Bachelor of Science in Health and Wellness	2010
Metropolitan State College of Denver Biology Major	2006
ITT Technical Institute Associate of Applied Science in Computer Network Systems	2002